FULTON IN RARE FORM
Kentucky Lad Holds Opponents to But Three Stingy Hits.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 15.—Fresh from her victory over Georgetown on Saturday, Virginia 10-day laid further claim to the Southern championship by defeating North Carolina by 5 to 1. The playing of the Tar Heels was rather disappointing, after the splendid game they put up on Saturday against the Danville State League club. They held poorly, allowing the visitors to score three runs, the one in the ninth being a scratch by Davis, who was substituted for Hamilton, who had walked. The situation of this property need the money, and we must sell.

This player joined the team yesterday. Eckstone has been coaching the baseball aggregation at the V. P. I., where he has gotten out one of the best college players in the South. Manager Shaffer is looking to him to be one of the stars this year, and Eckstone says that he will show a great improvement over his work of last season. "Happy" is in fine form, having worked himself into trim at Blacksburg, and he will be ready for the opening of the season.

SEASON OPENS IN THREE DAYS

Fans Are Anxiously Awaiting the

Umpire's Command to "Play Ball."

With the Virginia State baseball season but three days off, and the Norfolk franchise question at last settled amicably to all persons concerned, the present outlook points to what should be one of the most successful seasons in the history of the organized sport here in the State.

Of course, at the opening of the season, and in fact, for several months before the umpire's call, the Norfolk franchise question at last settled amicably to all persons concerned, the present outlook points to what should be one of the most successful seasons in the history of the organized sport here in the State.

WILLIAM AND MARY QUIET REIGNS WINS GOOD GAME ON MARY JANE

Randolph-Macon Outplayed in Opening Contest of Championship Series.

LONGNECKER PLAYS WELL
Randolph-Macon Fills Bases in First Session, But Masterly Twirling Prevents Score.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., April 15.—In a fast, snappy game here this afternoon William and Mary defeated Randolph-Macon by 5 to 2. The weather was very warm, but despite this fact a large crowd turned out to see this, the first game of the season.

Both teams played remarkably well, considering the chilly east wind which swept over the diamond. A whole holiday was given by the faculty, and the students were in the field in a body, and high enthusiasm prevailed throughout the game.

Lewis and Kirkmeyer, the new battery which has recently been substituted for Joyner and Longnecker, did exceptionally good work. Only six hits were allowed to visitors. Nine men were struck out by Lewis. Lewis has good speed and curves, and promises to perform wonders for the team before the end of the season. The battery was not changed for the home team during the entire game.

The game started off with Randolph-Macon at bat. Pritchard, the first man up, was hit, and Martin followed him to first on balls. Yancey then went to bat and made first, filling the bases, with but one man out. Scoring work of the battery, by the strong Lewis, who pitched a good game, five runs, neither side scored again until the tenth, and for a time it looked as though Yellow Jackets would be shut out. Yellow Jackets, however, bunched hits, the visitors brought in two runs. Randolph-Macon did not cross the home again, although the eighth inning was won by three men on bases, brought in by successive hits, the score: 5 to 2 in the eighth.

COLLEGIANS LOSE TO THE LAWMAKERS

Professionals' Victory Over Youthful Opponents Marked by Heavy Hitting.

MADE TWENTY-FIVE HITS

Derby, Still and Long Do the Twirling—Titman and Kirkpatrick Carry Off Honors.

In an old-fashioned slugging bee, Manager Shaffer's Lawmakers defeated the Richmond College baseball team on the Broad Street grounds yesterday afternoon by the decisive score of 17 to 6. The boys who had charge of the score-board in centre-field got mixed up in the sixth inning and gave the professionals one run too many, but they could hardly be blamed for this discrepancy, as the hits and runs came so fast in this season that every one had more or less trouble accounting for the tallies.

For the first three innings the game was good. Pitcher Derby, who started the fray for the Lawmakers, held his opponents safe, only nine men being hit in that time. It was Pop's plan, however, to give three men—Derby, Still and Long—three innings apiece, so at the end of the third Colonel Still took his place on the rubber, and, thinking he had nothing to fear from the collegians, took things easy, and was soundly pounded in the fourth for a total of five hits, which, together with a base on balls and a costly error by Reeve, let in five runs. Manager Shaffer refused to take him out in the next, and the collegian warmed up to his task, forcing Gleason and Richard to pop up easy flies to the infield and striking out Martin.

Long was substitute at bat for Still, and when he took his turn on the firing line proved so much of an enigma to the Spiders that at no time were they in the least danger of scoring. He started in to pitch for the losers, performed well, and looked to have a victory to his credit over his older opponents; but in the sixth he went ballooning, the winners pounced on his delivery with a will. Wallace distinguished himself in this room by pasting out a neat single and a two-bagger, when the bats came around for the second time. This was enough for Coach Dunlap, and he sent in Woodfin to relieve Wright. The former youth failed to deliver the goods, however, until three hits had been made off him and two runs resulted, bringing the total for that inning up to eleven runs. These runs were the result of ten singles and one error.

The Lawmakers' other run came in the fourth. Jefferson drove a pretty one past short and went to second on an error by the pitcher. He took third on Wallace's out from second to first, and galloped home on O'Neill's long fly to centre. In the inning before this Zeigler, in centre for college, made a beautiful throw from deep centre to the plate, and caught Kirkpatrick, who had tried to get home on a similar play.

The work of Titman and Kirkpatrick at bat for the professionals was notable. The former got five hits out of six times up, which was a slugging feat. The latter sacrificed four out of five times up. One of his hits was a three-bagger and the other a two-sacker. Hinton also did well with the willow, lining out three clean singles out of four times up. The other two times he sacrificed. The pitcher he faced and got a sacrifice. For college, D. Wright did the best work. He has two hits to his credit, with the exception of a hard drive, which he muffed in the fifth, he fielded his position creditably. He accepted four difficult chances in great style.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., April 15.—Quiet and tranquility reigned supreme last night in the cabin of the Mary Jane, following the rest of Sunday and to-day, before the actual opening of hostilities with the Trunkers, scheduled for Thursday afternoon at Lee's Field. Old Sea Dog Pender is confident that the local cranks will be satisfied with the make-up of the crew, from the moment the gong sounds until the bunch passes the home-stretch next September.

Owner Wells judges the team to be twenty-five per cent stronger than the aggregation that represented Norfolk last year, hence he is planning faith on their rooting into the top of the column.

"I have a likely lot of youngsters who have already demonstrated their loyalty to the old craft that has been cradled in these waters for many years, and naturally I feel both confident and confident," said Manager Pender.

"I am glad we commence hostilities with Portsmouth, and all should be able to give a good account of themselves on a gunpowder and our appetites for that Roanoke bunch, against whom we go the following Monday, on their own waters. Why, I can hardly keep my boys from going on in advance of the season to give them a taste of what's in store for them during the season."

That huffer Clarke has been throwing hot air around about the crew and this, I'm feeling to measure marlin-spikes with his bunch. When he got through with him, he will feel like a bulldog on a gunpowder and our appetites for that Roanoke bunch, against whom we go the following Monday, on their own waters. Why, I can hardly keep my boys from going on in advance of the season to give them a taste of what's in store for them during the season."

"When we come on down to Norfolk I expect to lead the boys and Shaffer and his crowd make a little better showing for a starter. I like old 'Hitch-up,' and would have to show him up as a coward, as it might queer the game in good old Richmond."

"I am not even considering Jack Grim and his crowd. He will live the season on the glory of last year's achievements. Count him out, until he wakes up and learns that the Lynchburg fans still insist on sending him back to the States."

"Pop McKevitt, over in Danville, will be sorry I passed his way later on in the month, despite the fact that he will live on the glory of what he accomplished as captain of the Lynchburg bunch."

"Seriously, my men are together; they are confident, and have their start-off with a team in better harness for strong pulling. We are evenly balanced—no stars, at the other end of the bar, but a lot of willing twirlers, all desirous of making a record, and we are sure to succeed."

"We have named the team; the majority are well known to the cranks; the others are known men, and I am willing to abide by it, showing made in the next thirty days."

Trinity vs. College.
The Richmond College boys will meet the strong Trinity aggregation at Brooklyn this afternoon in what should be one of the best amateur games seen on a local field this season.

The Spiders have shown themselves to be class among the best this year in all previous games, the defeat of Virginia Polytechnic recently being especially creditable. They showed against the professionals yesterday afternoon was good, and with the exception of the last two innings they did very creditably in every department of the game. The men went up in the air in this round, when the professionals began to find Wright, and made several misplays. If Coach Dunlap is able to get his men out of this stage-fright habit the locals will have more than an even chance with Trinity. The line-up will probably be about the same as that which was sent in against the Lawmakers, with the possible exception of Taylor, who may be selected to serve 'em over for the spiders.

GLORIFIER WINS CARTER HANDICAP

Big Chestnut Wins in Sensational Driving Finish from Great Roseben.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Glorifier, J. H. McCormick's big chestnut horse, second choice in the betting, won the $10,000 Carter Handicap at Aqueduct to-day, beating Roseben a length and a half, with Don Diego third. DeMund, the favorite, finished fourth, with Oxford, also heavily played, in fifth position. The time was 1:28.1-5. The handicap furnished a really sensational finish, and it was Roseben, a doubtful starter until the last hour before the race, that furnished the excitement. In the first furling Jockey Beckman, on Roseben, allowed his mount to be shouldered out of a good position, and he quickly dropped back to eighth place. DeMund went to the front at once, closely pressed by Glorifier. Don Diego, Marster and Avanteer.

Roseben's Great Race.
Entering the stretch, Roseben was still in eighth place, and it looked as if he could not get through the flying field. The others were strung out, a ready bait. Just as the crowd sent up the shout, "DeMund! DeMund!" Roseben caught through the crush on the outside of the field and out of the dust cloud that almost obscured the horses came Glorifier, two lengths in front of DeMund, and he won by a good margin. Fairly in the race, Roseben was fairly running over the struggling field. A furling from home he was in sixth place, behind DeMund, and he was in such rapid succession that the crowd took up the shout "Roseben wins!" But Glorifier's lead could not be over-come, and Roseben finished second on his own courage, getting little assistance from his jockey. The summaries: First race—selling; five furlongs. A hit (12 to 1) first, Kouter (6 to 5) second, Dr. Hollis (4 to 1) third, Time, 1:00-2-5.

Second race—The Bayside Steeplechase; about two miles—Jimmy Lane (2 to 1) first, Dulciana (11 to 5) second, Sandalwood (5 to 1) third. Time, 4:36. Third race—selling; four furlongs. Half furlongs—Thomas Calhoun (6 to 1) first, Kerry (8 to 1) second, Sweet Thine (4 to 1) third. Time, 5:44-5.

Fourth race—The Handicap; $10,000 seven furlongs—Glorifier (4 to 1) and 8 to 5) first, Roseben (8 to 1) and 3 to 1) second, Don Diego (19 to 1) and 4 to 1) third. Time, 1:28-1-5.

Oxford, Pileup, Juggler, Demund, Rye, Avanteer, Comedian, Orbeulcar, Colonel Jack, Marster, Ampedo, Malabar and Shackle, also ran.

Coupled.

Fifth race—selling; six furlongs—Beilsnieker (8 to 1) first, Killoch (6 to 1) second, Dunbar (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:28.

Sixth race—three-year-olds and up; six furlongs—Sulus, Graham Lad (9 to 1) first, Alphonarchen (7 to 1) second, El Cuxador (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:15.
